

SHORT STORY – The best baker and the best cribbage player is high praise for one person on Frank Knox. Harry Chandler writes “the flat top of the ship’s gyrocompass provided just enough room for a good-sized cribbage board.” “I could hold my own with anyone on the cribbage board except Walter Dodd. He was one of those exceptional chefs and thankfully for me he would never gamble on cribbage.” There you have it – top chef and cribbage master, Walter Dodd.
